RECOGNITION/COMMENDATION

1. Emily Burkett, Math and Chemistry Teacher at Hazel Park High School, was awarded a Detroit Section of the American Chemical Society Professional Training Enhancement Grant for 2011 in the amount of $400.00. Mrs. Burkett will be presenting at the ChemEd International Conference in July and is required to present the results of her experience at the United States National Chemistry Olympiad Local Section exam in March 2012. The High School would like to thank the American Chemical Society for their contribution and wish the best of luck to Mrs. Burkett on her presentation this summer.
2. The High School would like to congratulate senior Amanda McCrystal. She was chosen to represent Hazel Park High School at the Career and Technical Education Student Recognition Program. Each high school in Oakland County was asked to select one student from their CTE program. Amanda was chosen due to her leadership skills, computer skills, work ethic, and ability to problem solve in many business situations. We are very proud of her and wish her the best in her future endeavors.
3. For the third straight year, the Hazel Park High School Varsity Wrestling Team earned the distinction of being an All-State Academic Team. The top fifteen wrestlers had a 3.4 grade point average during this year's season. They currently carry a cumulative 3.2 g.p.a. for their high school careers. Leading them to this honor was their All-State Wrestling captain, junior Cody Vanderhagen who has a 4.0 g.p.a. The other fourteen deserving recognition are Taryn Goslow, Tim Stachurski, Andrew Hanson, Keith Bucholtz, Andrew Crandall, Anthony Hegedus, Chad Hart, Jon Roberts, James Kina, Richard Hinojosa, Shelby Mullins, Akad Anouya, Sam Cooper, and Adrian Quintero. On the mat, the team won their seventh straight District Championship under the leadership of newly promoted head coach Dale Hart and long-time assistant coach Steve Morton.
